Notes for JOHN GILMOR EHLER:

John Gilmore Ehler went by the name of George. His situation fits with a George Ehler who died in a fishing accident off of Long Island about 1895 or 1896. According to a family member, John G. left Queensport/Crow Harbour in the early 1890s and got on an American fishing vessel in Canso. He returned about a year later and his father Christian and one brother went to Canso to try to talk him in to staying. He refused and left on the fishing boat when it left port, never to be heard from again.

A George Ehler died on a fishing vessel based in Gloucester, MA while fishing off of Long Island. The death record says he was from "Cove Harbour", Nova Scotia. The information was probably reported by his employer or the fishing boat owner. Since there is no Cove Harbour in Nova Scotia and I can't find that there ever was one, I must assume that it could be Half Way Cove or Crow Harbour. I have intended to look at if a George or John Ehler was living there. I have a last known address for the George that died.
